30. [REDACTED] LIAISON Mark Gitenstein, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called saying that he and David Bushong, also of the Select Committee staff, had been meeting with a number of people in relation to their studies on secrecy and the protection of sources and methods and possible legislative needs in that regard. He said he had recently run across a memorandum done by [REDACTED] OGC, in [REDACTED] entitled "Protecting Classified Information, an Historical Review and Recommendations" and said that he would like the opportunity to sit down with [REDACTED] and, in effect, pick his brain. After checking with OGC and finding [REDACTED] and his alter ego, [REDACTED] on vacation, I called Gitenstein back and told him we would have to set the discussion for sometime next week. [REDACTED] office has been advised.
